I love her more, than any girl I've known before
And she loves me too, this I know for sure
But she's always leaving; tell me, where does she go?
You say she's yours? No.

You think she needs you, that's a lie
To her you're just another guys
And I'm the apple of her eye

So leave us now and walk away
I'm what she needs, I'm here to stay
And this is not okay

You need to leave, go
She's mine to keep, no
I hope you find, she's mine!

I've now arrived, into her life
I know this is wrong, but damn, it feels so right
See I'm sorry this hurts, but it's what I've got to do
You see, it's not me, it's you

You think she needs you, that's a lie
To her you're just another guy
And I'm the apple of her eye

So leave us now and walk away
I'm what she needs, I'm here to stay
And this is not okay

You need to leave, go
She's mine to keep, no
I hope you find, she's mine!
