

A Faylene Sky "Define Alive"

Visit "Define Alive" on MotoLyrics.com

(Surprise... I showed you alive now you're mine, you're mine!)
Too Late Too Late on your own time
I'm nothing, but you're still defining alive
(I know what keeps you coming back)
You're living in the wake of tomorrow, you'll break out alone
(On your own time, at your front door)
Just Lie on the floor
What you're looking what you're looking for
(Light yourself on fire today!)
You're nothing I need it,
Still something, but I can't believe it
Too Late Too Late on your own time
I'm nothing but you're still defining alive
(One more time)
Won't you tell me the naked truth About me About me
Just so you know I only hear the best About you About you
(Rise against Me you'll never win, I'm in the air that you breath)
(DIE, DIE)
(You're Mine)
Lay on the floor what you're looking for, What you're looking for
Lay on the floor what you're looking for (What you're looking For)
Repeat Chorus
