You're in need of inspiration
Or maybe just a new direction
I see the path you're headed on
Off into the next collision

How could you let them control you?
Grasp on and take control
Stand on your own
Find yourself some inspiration

How long does it take you to notice
This problem exists this problem exists
You've become a total wreck
Goddamnit get fixed, Goddamnit get fixed

Off the road
Off the map
You're no longer on our path
Off the road
Off the map
Face to face, uncover those tracks

Temptation swallows the weak
I wont let it swallow me
Temptation swallows the weak
I wont let it swallow my dreams

All this wasted all for nothing
How could you run so blindly by?
I can't express how much this matters
So hang your head on something better

You're only running from yourself.
Don't give up don't give in now

Stand, find perfect balance
Reconnect the life that's broken
Stand, find perfect balance
Fix the things you've done and stolen

You are your only hope
Open up those rolled back eyes

Hopelessly reaching in the dark
Searching for others
Just follow our light
Don't be a slave forever
Hopelessly reaching in the dark
Searching for others
Just follow our light
Don't be a slave forever
