I'll stay till the break of dawn where you stay
(To stay up all night, we're staying up all night)
And though we sweat, I can tell your mind is heavy (I won't know how, well I'd never try)

So keep your high hopes, then we'll go from there Your eyes, they won't believe me And I know we both are missing now, we've gone from here...

Well, it was us, we knew everything, I said we've gone too far
And the words I never said to you, I swear they're growing young
too far
And the words I never said to you, I swear they're growing old

We steady the past, and look to the present
We steady the past,

I've got a feeling
We'll be dreaming
Until the break of lights
Don't plan on leaving
When we are we dreaming We're staying up all night...

Well, it was us, we knew everything, I said we've gone
too far
And the words I never said to you, I swear they're
growing young
too far
And the words I never said to you, I swear they're
growing old

I'll stay till the break of dawn where you stay
(To stay up all night, we're staying up all night)
too far

growing young Ooooh...
