There is trouble on the horizon
As the valiant prepare for battle
An unholy invasion is rising
And the raging war has begun

Conquerors of the darkland
Ride
Conquerors of the darkland
Ride

Lay waste to those who oppose us

Conquerors of the darkland
Ride
Conquerors of the darkland
Ride

Time to put on your armor
And march onward into battle
For the fight is now at hand
You must defend your homeland

Evil forces of darkness
Stoking the flames of hatred
Like a black plague of chaos
It tramples all in it's path

Slicing with malice
Killing at will
The darkland will e lost

Hate had triumphed
Cannot be stopped
The darkland will be lost
