Now my minions engage!

From the darkest depths I have risen
On this corrupt Earth I dwell
To torment your rotten souls
And send you
Straight to Hell
Hell
It's time to join the minions
It is where you belong
Here you will be rewarded
For all that you have wronged

Now you are one of the many
All pent up with rage
Soon I will give you my command
Minions Engage

As my blood starts to boil
Eyes of fire begin to redden
All shall kneel
And witness Armageddon

Watch my minions slaughter
Hear pleasant cries of pain
The destruction of humanity
Carried out
In my name
My name
