

A Home. A Heart. Whatever. "Beside Ourselves"

How does it feel to disappear
Sometimes it should seem unreal

What could it be you long for
So out of reach more and more

When it's all my fault

So long
It's got to take so long
It's got to be clear
We've got to be right beside ourselves
Beside ourselves

When will you see my need for
Go on bleeding to the core

So long
It's got to take so long
It's got to be clear
We've got to be right beside ourselves
Beside ourselves
