Life's like a riverboat sailing out to nowhere
After all my hope is gone, I'm a client of this old man
But I'll fight 'till the end of my days,
And when I go I'll never be far from home 'cause

Life's like a riverboat sailing out to now here I lost the keys of my hell
And you found them back again
Life's like a riverboat sailing out to nowhere

I lost my faith on angels and prayers
I've never seen the light and I've never been sure
That he's waiting by the river - just waiting for me
Oh babe, I'll be dancing when he calls for me 'cause

Life's like a riverboat sailing out to nowhere
Lost it all on the roads that I crossed
With the angels that are walking around the room
With my eyes gazed on the stairs
-my lies are the best you'll hear tonight 'cause

Life's like a riverboat sailing out to nowhere
I lost the keys of my hell and you found them back again
Life's like a riverboat sailing out to nowhere
