

A Joker's Rage "Epiphany"

If you could live your life without your pain or strife,
No worries any longer, or what hurts you makes you stronger.

And you could never die or be the victim of a lie,
With all those possibilities fulfilling crazy fantasies.

Embrace your pain,
Live life insane,
Nothing to lose.
Embrace your past,
Don't think too fast,
Don't self refuse.

Do you regret your past?
Do you forget too fast?
Take inspiration from the things,
The evil things that life can bring.
Take control of fear,
Your underated fear,
If you curl and hide inside,
You're missing out on life's free ride.

Embrace your pain,
Live life insane,
Nothing to lose.
Embrace your past,
Don't think too fast,
Don't self refuse.

Two feet on the floor.
I wanna rock one more.
I wanna sin with you tonight.

Embrace your pain,
Live life insane,
Nothing to lose.
Embrace your past,
Don't think too fast,
Don't self refuse.
