Patience, hold your breath, now you are weightless,
enjoy the view.

We all float here two by two, and all you've ever known becomes something
New.

It's just a game, and things don't feel the same, no.

Welcome to hell, let me show you how to live your afterlife killing time.

Welcome to hell, let me show you how to live your
afterlife killing,
Willing, on this time.

Wait now, hold my hand if you are scared now, enjoy the ride.

We all walk here side by side as time goes on and on death is justified.

It's just a shame that things don't feel the same, no.

Welcome to hell, let me show you how to live your
afterlife killing time.

Welcome to hell, let me show you how to live your
afterlife killing,
Willing, on this time.

As the pearly gates are closed, forget about what you think you know,
We all just walk in circles here killing time.

Patience, hold your breath, now you are weightless,
enjoy the view.

We all float here two by two, and all you've ever known becomes something
New.

It's just a game, but things don't feel the same, no.

Welcome to hell, let me show you how to live your
afterlife killing time.

Welcome to hell, let me show you how to live your

afterlife killing time.
Welcome to hell, let me show you how to live your
afterlife killing time.
Welcome to hell, let me show you how to live your
afterlife killing,
Willing, on this time.
