She took the last train home to avoid all the people who live in a conflict
Zone.
Her beaten bloodshot eyes are alone.
No hope no end in sight just a victim of herself battling against the past.
The words I speak are here to show, it's time to let it go.

(If only for today)
Hold on and follow me through, these vines that bind
your every breath and
When you fall I will release you.
(If only for today)
Hold on and follow me through, these vines that bind
your every breath and
When you fall I will release you.

She lies alone at night, her so-called lover fornicates with a bit on the Side.
She's stripped of dignity and her pride Inside that inner rage is conflicting with her fears, she cannot seem to Turn the page.
The words you read are here to show, it's time to let it go.

(If only for today)
Hold on and follow me through, these vines that bind
your every breath and
When you fall I will release you.
(If only for today)
Hold on and follow me through, these vines that bind
your every breath and
When you fall I will release you.

I will release you.
I will release you.

Open those eyes, take off your disguise,
I know that sometimes it's hard to walk away.
(If only for today)

The time is now to dry up all those wasted tears and say
I won't live in fear

(If only for today)
Hold on and follow me through, these vines that bind
your every breath and
When you fall I will release you.

(If only for today)
Hold on and follow me through, these vines that bind
your every breath and
When you fall I will release you.

I will release you.
I will release you.
I will release you.
I will release you.
