

A Loathing Requiem "Enhanced Sinister Corruption"

The path of which acedia becomes fertile Demolition is now reborn
The vast obsession to network all minds into one mold
One collection

The path of which the prize is endless
Glory is infinite filth, hypocrisy
Wrath, malice, vengeance are programmed in us all

As drones built for war
Our eyes, never intended for sight
Enhanced by the sinister corruption
The gift to envision a world obliged in dreams and fantasy
Then watch it all burn down

Start with the sky, set it ablaze
Evolution falls into extinction
Repetition, flesh will always decay
Rot

The natural course is crumbling
We must now become machine

The path of which all life grows dim Infiltrate and destroy

Enhanced sinister corruption
Mechanically decomposing the flesh, catastrophe complete
Enhanced sinister corruption
We are now part of this machine
