I remember when you told me You were the one and only
But still I felt so lonely, I knew you were faking again.
Agony and misery, those feelings I once felt Contemplating all my fears, contemplating IT ALL!

You'll know the meaning of pain!
I hold the key to your chain!
Forever you'll lay in my cage!

As no one knows the outcome of tomorrow
Will I carry over the pains of yesterday
Right left, right left,
Each footstep leads me to my last breath I'm here with you you're here with me

I remember when you told me " Leave it all and drift with me"
Somewhere where no one will ever find out our link Take my hand and together we'll become, we'll become as ONE!

As no one knows the outcome of tomorrow
Will I carry over the pains of yesterday
Right left, right left,
Each footstep leads me to my last breath I'm here with
you you're here with me

Confused among all of my tears.
There's nothing left to live for
The destiny will keep our world apart
And there's no hope in reality

As no one knows the outcome of tomorrow
Will I carry over the pains of yesterday
Right left, right left,
Each footstep leads me to my last breath I'm here with
you you're here with me

One last time!
