Tell me what to do with all this anger and hate Tell me why i cant look into the mirror and see my face all the things we have been saying to the ones we've saved all the bad things we have done to the ones we have cared

the feelings that we lack
yeah
there is no turning back
curse you.

Tell me where we hid the souls of people left behind Tell me where's the fountain of hope for us to find all the things that you have done to people you have
saved
all the bad things you have done to the ones you have cared

yeah
there is no turning back
yeah
the feelings that we lack
yeah
there is no turning back
curse you

curse you to the darkest hole in hell

yeah
there is no turning back
the feelings that we lack
yeah
curse you
