Time is rarely good to you it leaves a mark in you and it never lets you go

Time, the one who raises you the one that's telling you to separate the right from wrong it loves you, it hurts you it feeds you, it kills you but still you don't want to let go

Time, our lives are depending on you do you want to be a foe
for a day or a friend for a lifetime
do i have to let you go without a chance to say goodbye

Time, the memories will remain the dreams they will unchain and it's time for me to go

but still i don't want to let go

do you want to be a foe

if i was the one to decide what to do with my last moments of life with you i would take the time and chance to say i don't want it to end this way

do you want to be a foe

do i have to let you go
