Since the movie we saw together
I dream about that nightly
You'll be proud of me I swear
This war can be useless
I can't breathe anymore I hope you die
Fuck that
I need your love like a boy
I can't survive
These things I can't get out of my fuckin head
To understand the reason of my tattoos
Wich part of me is lost in this fuckin world?
Wich part of me is it fuckin lost?
And you know it!
I could show you that I can find this
Love that you don't gave me
I hope you die for what you've done
I can't believe it's happen to me
So where's the you and me?
I could even lie for you...
