Captured by a endless dream every thing's not what it seems

You voice your smile is haunting me wont you just please release me

Its hard to think that everything will fall into place
As you make me feel like a summer breeze, when i stare at you its all just a dream

Captivated by your smile
Make my wish come true
I want to be with you
I'm captivated by your smile

Tainted by your electric curls together we could rule the world
You and me hand by hand, together we could make a stand
When i close my eyes to sleep at night your the last thought that's in my mind
As you make me feel like a summer breeze, when i
stare at you its all just a dream

Make my wish come true
I want to be with you
I'm captivated by your smile

Woah woah woah x4

Captivated by your smile
Make my wish come true
I want to be with you
I'm captivated by your smile
