I'm sorry that I'm trying to figure this out before it all goes wrong
I'm sorry I'm not your little girl who would sit back and smile

Now I'm walking along this road, staring at the sky up above and dreaming of a time when we were all younger

Isn't it funny how things use to be
The simple things in life use to always come free
But now we have to pay Isn't it funny how i use to be Playing in the sand looking up at the trees
But now we have to pay

Now I'm walking along this road, staring at the sky up
above and dreaming of a time when we were all
younger

I use to always follow with my head and forgot my heart
I wanted everything to go my way and keep on flying to the stars
Now I'm walking along this road, staring at the skies up above and dreaming of a time when we were all
younger

Isn't it funny how things use to be
The simple things in life use to always come free
But now we have to pay
Isn't it funny how i use to be
Playing in the sand looking up at the trees
But now we have to pay

Take your time, Take your time
This ain't no time for second chances
I will use my backbone and set me free
This ain't no time for second chances Coz in the end there will be no you and me

Isn't it funny how things use to be

The simple things in life use to always come free
But now we have to pay
Isn't it funny how i use to be
Playing in the sand looking up at the trees
But now we have to pay
Isn't it funny how i use to be
Playing in the sand looking up at the trees
But now we have to pay

No i wont fall back in love with you, we were the ultimate two but now i know better
