You stand before the world
And you feel the cold, creep up on you
You stare into the distance and you feel like you just want to let go

But you hear
This voice say
Not to go
But you dont want to hear it

(woah)

Your lying on the pavement
And the people dont stop they just walk on by Your memerious they have faded
And you have lost all of your senses

But you fear
This voice that, Says not to go

And I will run to the end of time
So i can catch you before you hit the ground
I will never let you go
And I will sail to the end of time
So i can catch you before you start to drown
I will never let you go
Your left outside, In the cold
And you just don't know where to go
Your drowning in your misery
And you are begging me please not to go
When the stars keep falling down upon you
And the darkness that lyes within
Will never deceive you.

(woah)

I will run to the end of time (Yeah)
i will never let you go

And I will run to the end of time
So i can catch you before you hit the ground

I will never let you go
And will sail to the end of time so
So I can catch you before you start to drown
I will never let you go

(woah)
