

A Transylvanian Funeral "Flesh And Dust"

Visit "Flesh And Dust" on MotoLyrics.com

Torment, eternal...
Embrace the flames of chaos...
Hell-bent, infernal...
The light of heaven lost...

To reign supreme over all flesh and dust...
In endless dreams of immortal lust...
Forever calling forth the darkness from within...
To drown the light of heaven in the blackest depths of sin...

Forlorn existence...
This land the scourge of god...
Inborn resistance...
Controlling from beyond...

To reign supreme over all flesh and dust...
In endless dreams of immortal lust...
Forever calling forth the darkness from within...
To drown the light of heaven in the blackest depths of sin...

Godless, the serpent...
Poisons the prophet-liar...
Impious and fervent...
Word of our lord most dire...

To reign supreme over all flesh and dust...
In endless dreams of immortal lust...
Forever calling forth the darkness from within...
To drown the light of heaven in the blackest depths of sin...
