(INTRO)

Yeh... I look around & all I see is that We human beings are the playground of emotions N with this song... We are not talking to just one person Shit I can't even count it
So lets go

(HOOK)

Souls that are trapped and burn all alive
From inside they cry thousand tears
For what's wrong in this change
That lost control
We question why?

(VERSE 1)

Never wanted to talk about itbut now I'm sorry, I have to rap
I take you back with yo voice when the world went black When actions take a seat abacklet me put some light on that
And where is all the money for blast, reliefs, hazards, and attacks

Living in a country, who's roots have grow so bad Places still burn with riotshumanity is beaten of the track
Nothing has changed with the years passed You scorned resources that could have last Price rise of everything that's necessary for a habitat

Thousands left homeless in schemes acting as a trap
No account of everyday how an innocent is harassed
So many things to be done but you're still sleeping on that No money for the poors but the economy is growing so fast

What happened to the parliament sessions that you had The meetings in which You sat
Rising corruption, vandalism cases piled up in racks

Yes, I'm talking form the second largest nation where hunger screams
Come to think about it n you'll understand by this song what I mean

(CHORUS)

Where Is The Light
Cuz This Ain't Just A War
As Another World From Above
Comes To Fall
Drag It Through The Chest
Paint It On The Wall
The Aim Of This Song
Peace Is All We Want

From Everything You Hide
Anything You Show
We The People Act Like
We Didn't Even Know

Stop Making A Fool n Pulling Wool Over Our Eyes Don't Force Us To Intrude You That We Question Why?

(VERSE 2) Yung Thug

Dey tld me fakerz was always fake n haterz'll always hate,
Dese politicians buildin filthy empires whn dey congregate.
I was tld all my lyf dat 4 justice I have 2 w8...
Till I learnt d real justice is d justice datchu take!
Criminals n women abusers, citizens is all d choosers,
Is my country dat stupid dey turnin bitches in2 rulers?
I dnt mind 4 givin it a shot n make'em understnd dat
dey not saviours,
Dey'll 4getchu whn dey get 2 dat chair, dey a buncha foolers.
Fakin n profitin, lootin d poor is deir profession,
A 100 innocent people killed is wat cums out at deir confession.
Dey was d 1's dat had biggest pockets even in recession,
U a fool if u believe wat dey say, dey don hav a mssg...
Gotta recognize who dey really r 4 it's 2 late, Dey don care bout nuthin but money dey cud even sell d state!
Exaggeratin 4 u 2 believe but dey word is fake, Dey gettin fatter while snatchin food 4m a hungry mans plate...

(VERSE 3)

As powerful men play with words, I'm on last drag, last
verse
Everything is under control but it's still getting worst Everyday therez a new tragedy homicide, casualties Slumdogs thrown away while these muther f* rob their canopies

Politicians are no strangers to these controversies In the breaking news everyday a bunch of scandals is all I see All development shit is fugazy but a common man is still enticed
They made to believe this worthless expenditure is all so nice

Imposing tax after tax, faster than the speed of light Selling your soul to the devil you always keep acting as a prototype
Though We are not running it but We are not that blind to believe
Sitting in air-conditioned offices you passing verdicts of peace

You are busy in making money, moving your ass across the map
And here a whistle blower vanishes away with a snap But now if you don't do what's required n show us the truth
Then the power to the people is ready to take it all back from you
