This is the kingdom of the dead
You can smell it in the air
There are only corpses without soul
The sky is cloudy and it's dark
Demons are flying through my eyes
I see their master in his throne

He is the prophet of the sin
He is controller of the wind
He is a demon from the east
The apocalypse is called beast
Azrael is his name

He has the keys of all the gates
His pleasure is the blood of sands
He is the great fallen one

Now the legion marching on
The banners have the goat up one
The gate of heaven has collapse

All of the demons praying to him
The rise of goat has begin
The dust of war is clearly now
The blood of angels descends the land
Lucifer is his name
