Seize them all; they are now for the taking
Helpless souls lined up for doomsday
The light from the sky is false and weak
The power of our weapons renders god's demise

The bondage of the seraphim
Encouraging bloodshed
The capture of angels
Now I can see

Watching from our thorn bed, in total delight
The enslavement of the humanoid comes to pass
Parasitic struggle, a sickening sight
Extinction of a worthless breed

The bondage of the seraphim
Encouraging bloodshed
The capture of angels
Now I can breathe

Seeping into my flesh
A choir from beyond
Prophetic voices that call my name
My name

The bondage of the seraphim
Encouraging bloodshed
The capture of angels
Now I can see
