[L.M. Jenssen / J. Hagen]

Once again surrounded by moving walls vacating the innermost of human halls

Searching, I'm heading for the light

Walking closer without fright

Whats that?

A tricle, a shiver down her spine

Erase memory

be divine

Why do you remain silent

brother?

Why don't you speak your mind

sister?

Why walk the path of shoulders cold?

Exit mould

I'm here again, among trees and green meadows and people in countless rows

Searching, I tread the paths in need of light embracing everyone in sight

Whats this?

A story of feasts and wine?

Erase memory

be divine

Why do you remain silent

brother?

Why don't you speak your mind

sister?

Why walk the path of shoulders cold?

Exit mould
