Did you know?
While you were sleeping I was not
Did you know?
I couldn't sleep cause of the things you never said
I waited for so many nights to hear you say
How every road I walked became the wrong way

When I tried to get to you
I tried to reach the inner child
All those times I tried to hold you
Left me feeling we had died
We had died

Did you know?
When we fought last night I knew
That the blame was really mine this time
I tried to make you show me
A hint of what you tried to hide
Turne the tide

When I tried to get to you
I tried to reach the inner child
All those times I tried to hold you
Left me feeling we had died
We had died
