"Let Me Live"

I know the men's story
Men betray among themselves
It's not the end but just the beginning
And I don't want to be part of it
My soul is conflicting
Living in sorrow in this world
Sorrow is restraining myself
But I've got the truth inside myself
I want to swim in the night like in the sea
Don't want to feel any pain into flesh
This world is rotten orange
Nothing but a lie
I know the way to the endless ocean
Which is very far from here
I need to get out
Need to stay away
Let me live
Let me live
