Lustful hands of strength on your downfall
Regained is the hate, I'll spread over all the creation

To total emptiness I'll bring to you
The spiral gate of the unknown

A death embrace, moving out of sight
I am your twilight
At the end of reality crawling
On your holy innocent land
You're not dead, just floating
Don't be scared, you're just changing in a devilish smile
As my sun's cracking the sky

I'll create mirror reflections distorted, twisted and shaped
Out of your flesh

I am thy lust murderer, fear maker

My chosen one, as pure as flesh and bone
Take my blasphemous 616 into your arms
