My bell's ringing
While I'm regurgitating
My pitiful life

Blood and hate
Solitude, anger and pain
This is my ivory tower
Of low vibration
Darkness

The pages keep turning, lightning strikes
I don't belong to no one's cage
Oh, no I don't belong to no one's cage

The pages keep turning, lightning strikes
Another nightmare
I don't belong to no one's cage
Oh, no I don't belong to no one's cage

Wherever I may roam
I am the endless nomad

Travelling the seven seas of time
Like a beast wondering for taste of poison

I shall push it away over any senses
The shining insomnia obscure life tasted through those poisonous lips
Pitiful glance

Let my bell ring my 616 of endless darkness
Let the bell rings 616
