Close by Abigail's Ghost
You're afraid to let me in
That twisted mind of yours
You're afraid you'll be the one
To end up on all fours
Don't be afraid, I promise
This won't hurt at all

And all the thoughts you're hiding from me
And all the things you won't talk about
And all your lies are wasted on me
You shut your mouth and close me out

Open up, it's the only way
To chase away your ghosts
Hide your shame, I see it anyway
But that's just how it goes
Don't be afraid to be yourself
This won't hurt at all

And all the thoughts you're hiding from me
And all the things you won't talk about
And all your lies are wasted on me
You shut your mouth and close me out

And all my time you've taken from me
And all the things we can't talk about
And all your lies you gave them to me
You shut your mouth and throw me out
