

Abigail's Ghost "Waiting Room"

Visit "Waiting Room" on MotoLyrics.com

Take my words and chain them to a moment
Take my heart and throw it on the floor
Languishing, been waiting here forever
Call my name, I'll walk right out the door

And I'll just take my number
Sit and wait my turn
I'm waiting for your answer
When will I ever learn

I'm waiting for you to call my name
Enamored emotions twist my game
Fantastically skewed, you're still the same

Take my mind, you think that it's your own

Watch me go, what I don't know I'll fake
Take a look, you're more lost than you think
Take a seat, think over your mistakes

And now I've got your number
Now sit and wait your turn
I'm through with giving answers
When will you ever learn

I'm waiting for you to call my name
Enamored emotions twist my game
Fantastically skewed you're still the same.
