A stench will again fill the air
A burning mountain of corpses
Slain by slings and arrows
Bleating fools succumb
As we dominate and become
Nourished by the earth
Writing serpent surfaced
Arise in maniacal compulsion
Feeding the flames of expulsion
Black flames... black flames
Holy dogma exorcised in spiritual darkness
Foundations laid by sinners
Re-emergence of the insidious
Upon towering virile pillars
Plunge your fists into the soul
Against idolatry weakness toil
Extinguished in immolation
Malediction in my inclination
Possessed odious legion
Screaming forth with hate
Leading the pathetic prince
Towards the flaming fate
Black flames of expulsion
Growing in obscurity
Black flames of expulsion
Form the ashes of divinity
Confront the masses with doom
In their catatonic state
Reprehensible
Detestable
Dawning of the irate
Black flames of expulsion
Engulf the martyr's pyre
Black flames of expulsion
In damnation we conspire
