Summoned by subconscious fire, the source of command
Dritical mass of anarchy, reaping the land Eternal curse of hells infantry, the sword is at hand

Throwing flames of anger, asphyxiating mist Stench of burning corruption, procession into the abyss

Descending, the god who fights under the shields guard Chains of power, melted through, unleashed from earthly prison

Unleashed from the sky, hells repent Cannons poised high, to restore the throne we were sent

Breeding hate, the wrath to kill, relentless thrust to the end Battalions override the followers, heritage of death must descend

The light bears me not, and then he must fall!

Renegades at hell's command, endless thrust Renegades at hell's command, battalions ride Renegades at hell's command, heritage of death Renegades at hell's command, must descend

Book of lies, incinerate, against the resurrection we congregate
We must negate this oppression, with Lucifer's total aggression Relieving Christ of his throne in pain, black horns of liberty now reign

We are part of a greater plan, renegades at hell's
command
Free your soul from the lies of man, supremacy is at hand
