To the point of the absurd, Slaughtered and writhed in Absorb the primordial energy from the ritual mutilation Within beastlike souls, the circle of fire intensifies Pre-ordained, by the moon you're slain, for the dark one's gratification

Stakes aflame, releasing the stench of eternal life
Bleed in sorrow as you suffer a nocturnal death

Chosen to indignate, flesh turns black, cries of anguish and pain
Satiated lord of the ritual, rising from the seal again Blessed are you to observe this bizarre attention Piercing the genitalia over a chalice for the blood's retention

Bleed in sorrow as you suffer a nocturnal death!

Enraptured by the torture, you stoke the fire again Branding your lacerated flesh with the ultimate symbol of pain
Spirit worship insane

Sharpened stone to the skin, marking ourselves to this death
Such macabre remembrance of the victim's dying breath
Satan is nature in all of it's girth, eternally soiling blood into the earth

Stakes aflame, releasing the eternal curse Bleed in sorrow for the sacrificial creed

Damned we are, incorrigible termination Dead we shall be, horrific mind consumption
