Nocturnal Legion
Darkened skies
Weapon in hand
Death in their eyes
As they storm towards
The heaven gate
Destroy the light
And fulfill your fate!

Count the Warriors - 666
Seeking flaming torment in their souls
And burning temples to reach their goals!

Kill the messiah
And attack the godly hall
Slaughter the weak
And let the heavens fall!

See, we march on
Through holocaust winds
And apocalyptic storms!
As we bring the sound of silence

Over mountains and wastelands
We will forever walk
To seek the light
And cast our shades upon it!
