Wanted to pin things down but not fake it
Rather not hear what I have to say
I've got to say

It's not easy to keep up the invention
Don't wanna hide what I have to feel
I've got to feel

I
My I
Always I, I

Wanted to see this through
Can I face it?
Now I'm too tired to hide

It's easy to give up the attentions
Of lucid time though I'd
Learn to see it had to be

I
My I
Always I, I

Always I
Always I
Always I
Always I
