"Last Sunrise"

Iâve never reached the top of my shadow
But tomorrow Iâll reach my end
Now just a sadness grows inside me
To hell or heaven Iâll be sent
Iâve got only one more wish
Just to see tomorrow's sunrise
Sooner than the angelâs wings
Will forever cover my eyes

Chorus: No quarrel with the fate
Not to blame or to hate
Just to see my last sunrise
No sadness or even tears
No worries or even fears
Just to see my last sunrise
Then go away in peace

It has always been my fight
Fight for freedom and fame
I just wanted to get higher
But itâs always been the same
No one will wait me any longer
Only on the other side
No one will wait me any longer
Only on the other side

Chorus
