My verses, stand gawping a bit
I never get used to this
They lived here long enough

Enough

I sent them out of the house
I don't wanna wait, until there toes are cold

Enough

I wanna hear, the humming of the sun
Or that of my heart, hardening

Enough

They don't screw classicly
They babble commonly
And bluster nobly

Enough, enough

In winter there lips leap
In spring they lie flat at the first warmth
They ruined my summer
And in autumn it's girls and a broken heart

For another twelve lines on this sheet
I'll hold my hand over their head
And than I'll kick them out

Enough

Go and pester elsewhere
One-cent rhymes
Find somebody who cares

Enough

Go now on your high feet,
This is were the graves laugh
When they see there guests

Enough

One corps on top of the other
Go now and stagger to her
Whom, I do not know

Enough, enough

In winter there lips leap
In spring they lie flat at the first warmth
They ruined my summer
And in autumn it's girls and a broken heart
