And then it catches up no longer 25
Like that makes a difference when everybody else died
We might seem naive but what's it to you
When looking at the options what else can we do

And when it catches up - I don't give a fuck

And then it catches up no longer 21
Let's not exaggerate but the fight has just begun
And it might make no sense but neither does your world
Cause what you gone and done seems so fuckin' absurd

And when it catches up - I don't give a fuck

Just looking at you world
What else can we do
