Verse 1

They Say what goes around Comes around
Later on another night I'll be back in town
But for now I got that oh familiar feelin
I'm in a daze while I'm looking at da ceeling (Damn)

Where my phone, what's da time? Where my draws at?
Damn she fine. Never mind, Man who's bra is that (Huhh) Got the liquor breath from last night
I aint fronting, if I kissed her that was last night

Not me I'm a Gee no settlement (Nope)
No rings, No Strings, No evidence
You was look for some bling and a foreign car
I was looking for a fling and a porn star.

Haaaa we both got what we wanted
Don't worry If I'll call you baby live for the moment.
Call your friends up and tell em what you say we got.
Maybe we'll meet again...
Uhhh or maybe not.

Hook
(Now it's time for us to say Farewell)
We was running out of time
Her name was pleasure, but the pleasures all mines.
(Now it's time for us to say Farewell)
Now I ain't trying to be your man
All I needed was a one night stand
(Maybe we we'll meet down the line...)
Uhh Maybe not.

Ver 2
Different city same ish
She from New Hampshire, and wants to be my Maine chick
Hoping she'll become the one I share my name with
But I get sea sick, So I don't do relation-ships

I'm into fancy whips girl I live a fast life
Matter fact I was a pimp in my past life

Things were different last night and if that's so
You're right...
What you expect I'm an asshole.

(Ahaa) Face it baby it was just fun.
I don't chase em, I replace em with another one
It don't matter who you wit girl, or where you from
Only thing you get is hard d*ck and some bubblegum
Two fingers in the air Gone
Only thing sticking round is the scent of my Cologne
And now ya homegirl got a Jones for A Jones
You're the type to make me want a wife. Right?
Wrong!

Hook
(Now it's time for us to say Farewell)
We was running out of time
Her name was pleasure, but the pleasures all mines.
(Now it's time for us to say Farewell)
Now I ain't trying to be your man
All I needed was a one night stand
(Maybe we we'll meet down the line...)
Uhh Maybe not.
