If you find a way to love
Can we see and stay to love

In a sign called countlessness
Sketch the keys to you
Reaching for a post
Where one loves the most

As we learn in different ways
Free so dreams come true
Searching for a style
Care without denial

What we say despite of love
Collide into self-retreat
Can't we see that love can be
Something so precious
To cherish and hold and then

In so many ways to love
If we realize it's love

In so many ways to love
If we realize it's love

If you see ignite in love
So far to reach love
Can't you see that love can be
Something so precious
To cherish and hold and then

All so many ways of love
Can we compromise true love
It's those funny things in love
In our only way we love

*Our love so precious
True love is to cherish
Our love is so precious

*repeat
