"Dangerous Girl"

Late night in a downtown club,
I saw her coming in the smoke and dust.
She was starin' at me with look so wild,
So I put of my guitar and winked my right eye.

The gig was starting at ten o'clock,
And I knew that on her pants there is no lock.
My heart started to beat really fast,
Or in the fact, I was ready to blast.

She is dangerous girl,
Body like an angel but a devilish soul.
She is dangerous girl,
Tonight I'm gonna get laid. Awyeaaa!

But she was faster, more horny than me,
She grab my hand and led me out, Oh I see!
Was so crazy she kicked out the door,
And later we were down on the floor.

When I woke up I was really done
I turned around and she was gone
She just left, I had nothing to ask,
Man forget the past, it was not the last

She is dangerous girl,
Body like an angel but a devilish soul.
She is dangerous girl,
But not the only one in this world.

She is!
She is!
(Dangerous girl) She is!
She is!
(Dangerous)
GIRL!
