You see, I've never been here
You ask me to dance
My legs would run away before
I never wanted to know
How it would be like
To let me come through you

Taste my hesitation
Is it bitter or sweet
I'm starting to reveal things
I fear the danger in you
To look into your eyes
I'm standing on the edge now

I thought it was clear but now I'm frightened
The essence is another
Red light, I can't deny it, I trembled from the start
It is near, you let me fly
The essence of my love
And it feels like you're caressing the inside of my heart

I said: "You're nothing I want"
Now you're all that I want
Rules forbid me to see what's real
And you, you want to be mine
I'm falling so hard
Not knowing what we are

I thought it was clear but now I'm frightened
The essence is another
Red light, I can't deny it, I trembled from the start
It is near, you let me fly
The essence of my love
And it feels like you're caressing the inside of my heart

I thought it was clear but now I'm frightened
The essence is another
Red light, I can't deny it, I trembled from the start
It is near, you let me fly
The essence of my love
And it feels like you're caressing the inside of my heart
