Uncovered was every truth
And everything seems to be understood
Dog is not yelping but lying under the feet
Ready to lose his teeth just for rules

Betrayal must be paid by blood
Let the tears flow with streams
Honor is last bastion
When there's nothing left

Give in to fate
And lose yourself in nothingness
Big retribution for old-time sins
Will not save a lost face

Betrayer must pay
But lie is everywhere
And I can't trust you too
Welcome among manikins
Welcome among joyful side of nonentity
