Where you'll find me sun captures the shade
Drifting slowly this sand taints my mind
Lack of shelter, out of self control
Can I gather these thoughts

[Chorus]

There's no hope for this earth
Sea of dust in my eyes
Barren past controls my fate

On the surface we all see the same
Clouded visions, ideas laid to waste
This horizon it tells of the days
Dark oasis of long ago

[Chorus]

Their suffering
The screams and cries
I take it in
Their hubris
Their own undoing
I breathe it
