Summer has gone
And all that's left is sun.
It's hanging from my wall,
Though how it pictures epitome.

It's drifting in above,
Away, but without love.
Deranged of some my heartache,
Keep falling one by one.

Now you're gone. x4

Now you're gone. x4

Broken.

(Bridge) x 2
I'm scared of the dark,
I can't tell you apart,
You're mine forever
Or lost in never.

If my heart is to blame,
When you puzzle up the same,
Then I surrender,
To broken weather.

I'm scared of the dark.

(Bridge) x 3
