Approaching the final rays
Open the book of the dead
You'll see the truth
Shining in the sarcophagus of thy lord
Imothep
Bringer of disasters
I invoke the beast
That sleeps in the depth of tombs

Hamunaptra
The sacrifice is yours
Kingdom of death
I scream the incantations

I am the force that slept
Three thousand years in the darkness
And spilled the blood of the impure
I am the force that saw
Your decadence haunting your life
Till the poisoned blood was she'd

The sacrifice is now
I open her chest and read the incantations
Anubis, god of all gods
Art thou hearing me
Wake the dead from sleep
