I gave my best (for who?)
And I tried (for you!)
Sometimes I don't want to alive...
I regret every step that I made
But I can't make myself not to ask...

... does this life have sense?
... why my soul is always tense?
... why I ever had to try
To live with this sin
To carry it within?
Must your every word be the lie?

Cried myself to death
Now I regret every tear I gave...
... away!

I'm tired of this shit!
And lying in this pit!
Waiting just to get burned!
Decided to move on, not to get burned anymore!

Not to get burned anymore!

... does this life have sense?
... why my soul is always tense?
... why I ever had to try
To live with this sin
To carry it within?
Must your every word be the lie?
