As individuals, but with the same vision, we resist us against this world.

This world full of shit. We don't believe everything you say.

Fuck the media, fuck this politics, it's black metal
against the world.

You believe anything they say, you act like a zombie,
Going to church, watching your soaps.

Fuck the media, fuck this politics, it's black metal
against the world.

We know what's beauty, we know what's strength.
We do not worship anything, the answer lies in our selves.

Fuck the media, fuck this politics, it's black metal
against the world.

Fight this war with yourself and be free,
Free of this society, free of what you call humanity

Fuck the media, fuck this politics, it's black metal
against the world.

Black metal against the fuckin world!
