"Rise Of The Fallen Angel"

Hear the thunderstorms raging through the night
When darkness takes away all sight
Until a thunderbolt reveals
What every Christian must have feared
Shadows slumbering through the dark
The legion of Satan

The rise of the fallen angel has begun
He who was once cast out will overcome
Even god himself fears him deep

And while the thunderstorms are raging on
And thunderbolts rip the sky
Wolves are howling for their master
As slowly Satan's kingdom rises
And the legion of Satan comes forth

And so the cast out claims the throne
Humanity is free for once and for all
For the tyranny of god has ended now
The fallen one has won

The rise of the fallen angel has begun
He who was once cast out will overcome
Even god himself fears him deep
