Just one second till eternity!

Cause we're just one second till eternity
If you wait too long, maybe the chance is gone
So you got just one second if you come with me
You gotta decide for this moment will fly

I know the road is long, long, long
Winter times are gone, gone, gone
One more time, we talk, talk
Where we're gonna walk

Cause we're just one second till eternity
If you wait too long, maybe the chance is gone
So you got just one second if you come with me
You gotta decide for this moment will fly

I still need the truth, truth, truth
Know... are few, few, few
I wanna take your hand
And take you away, on a cloudy day

Cause we're just one second till eternity
If you wait too long, maybe the chance is gone
So you got just one second if you come with me
You gotta decide for this moment will fly.
